About Me

I'm Jim Fronk, a dedicated voice actor and One Voice Award nominee with extensive experience across commercials, audio dramas, video games, and animation. My commitment to delivering high-quality audio promptly that connects with audiences is what I bring to table. In addition to my voice work, I'm the host of The Microphone Insider Video Podcast, where I share insights and connect with fellow professionals. I also specialize in helping voice actors establish their online presence through my website, websitesforvo.com, guiding over 100 professionals in creating effective VO brands and websites. I teach voice actors how to create, update, and expand their websites, empowering them to take control of their online presence and social media.

Core Competencies

- Voiceover for Commercials, Narration, Audio Dramas, and Video Games
- Efficient Audio Production
- Strong Communication and Client Engagement
- Podcast Hosting and Industry Insights
- Website Development and Personal Branding

Professional Experience

Owner/Voice Actor | Jim Fronk Voice | JIMFRONK.COM

November 2021 – Present

As the owner of JIM FRONK VOICE, I have created a dynamic voiceover business that focuses on quality and client satisfaction. My responsibilities include:

- Studio Operations: Managing a broadcast-quality studio equipped with Neumann U87 AI, Neumann TLM 103, Electro Voice RE20, and Sennheiser 416 microphones, ensuring all audio meets industry standards.
- Marketing Strategy: Creating and implementing strategies to attract new clients, leveraging my experience in branding and online presence management.
- Commercials: Providing various voiceover styles, including upbeat and energetic, smooth and conversational, authoritative, and the trusted "guy next door," all tailored to engage diverse audiences.

- Audio Dramas: Voiced diverse characters in productions like Dead Air and Leo Brawn, demonstrating my versatility and ability to connect with listeners.
- Video Games: Contributed voice work for video games, including Breaker's World and Last War: Survival Game, focusing on character-driven performances.
- Client Relationships: Built lasting relationships with clients by providing reliable and timely services.
- Continuous Learning: Engaging in workshops and training to enhance my voice acting skills and stay updated with industry trends.
- Portfolio Development: Managing my website to showcase my work and provide resources for clients and aspiring voice actors.
